

The second grade students were provided a tangible way to understand metamorphosis as they got an up-close look at the life cycle of a butterfly - from caterpillar to chrysalis to butterfly. The students patiently watched with anticipation as the caterpillars grew and transformed a little each day. Finally on April 29th, the butterflies were ready to be released. What a great experience!

Thank you to the Hummer family for the classroom caterpillars.

