

In April the eagles and eaglets got together to discuss the virtue KINDNESS. They listened to the story KINDNESS MAKES ME STRONGER, by Elizabeth Cole, and thought of ways they can be kind. They wrote those ideas down and made a very long paper chain! Next they filled a BINGO card with ways they would like to be kind. Throughout April, as they complete a task, they "X" their box and each BINGO wins a prize. Let's see if anyone can get BLACKOUT!

KINDNESS

Duck said, "I will help my mom clean the whole house."

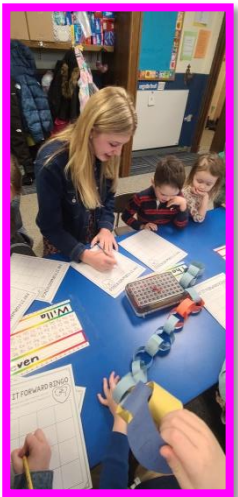

Mr. Mouse is lonely and that makes me sad. I'll keep him company, I'm sure he'll be glad."

KINDNESS CHANGES EVERYTHING

Say "you're sorry" if you do something wrong

“Kindness makes me stronger, and makes me happy too.”

“When you show kindness to others, kindness returns to you.”
