

The residents of Copperleaf Assisted Living and third graders were happy to meet their pen pals face to face. They have exchanged letters throughout the year. They shared pastries together and then the students visited their rooms.

*Friends
make the world
beautiful.*

Let's Be PALS

