

The second grade students practiced patience and perseverance as they worked hard and had fun completing their clay pots.

